Worship Services—7:45—8:45—11:15 AM

Here at Faith Community Lutheran...We almost always follow the traditional order of worship familiar to most Lutherans, but usually our services are a “blend” of old and new music. As Lutherans, we view ourselves as a church of “Word & Sacrament.” Therefore, “God’s Word” is held in high esteem as we follow lessons and sermon with our Bibles open. FCLC is among a growing number of Lutheran Churches committed to celebrating the Sacrament of Holy Communion every week. As we are anointed with oil at Holy Communion today, we are reminded that we are all in need of healing in one way or another. Sometimes, it’s our bodies that need healing; sometimes it’s our feelings that are hurt; sometimes it’s our thinking that needs healing; sometimes it’s a relationship that is hurting; sometimes it’s our faith in God that needs healing. If you wish to share a prayer concern with us at that time, you are more than welcome.

17th Weekend after Pentecost

September 26 & 27, 2009

Welcome, Guests!

We are grateful that you have remembered the Sabbath to keep it holy.

Living as a Christian

Our Lord Jesus points out to His followers that no one who uses the name of our Lord Jesus Christ should be prohibited from casting out evil spirits. Thus, a person who has been given the Spirit to minister in the name of Jesus should continue, even though he is not one of the inner circle of disciples.

In today’s Gospel, Jesus warns against causing one to sin. If a person is constantly tempted by his eyes or hands or feet or other forces, it is better to give them up than give in to the temptations which lead to sin. So-called friends that are comforting can unknowingly lead us into temptation if we are not listening to the Holy Spirit. Jesus’ message is that temptation is a part of our lives. In order to avoid it, sometimes we may have to cut ourselves off from some aspect of our lives that leads us into sin. When we do so, God will lead us into a life of faith and grace and give us the assurance of eternal life.

Jesus tells his disciples that there is a penalty that awaits those who don’t repent. Forgiveness and abundant grace are there for the asking, but those who continue in their sinful ways miss out on the miracle of faith and the sure hope of eternal life.

Jesus’ disciples are cautioned not to lose their “saltiness” and to be at peace with each other. They are to focus on the task of spreading Jesus’ message and serving others. We, like the disciples, are the salt of the earth, and we bring that saltiness whenever we minister in the name of our Lord Jesus.

Dear Father God and our Lord Jesus, Thank you for everything you have given us and lead us not into temptation, Make us fully aware of your presence through the Holy Spirit and guide us away from evil. Amen.

—Tom Kankiewicz
